CONDITION SATISFACTORY.

Says Bulletin Issued This Morning By Gaylor's Doctors.

Hoboken, N. J., Aug. 19.—The condition of Mrs. Gaylor was satisfactory, according to a bulletin which was issued this morning.
Great bundles of letters written by children, expressing hope for the mayor's recovery, were delivered at St. Mary's hospital last evening. He will probably be allowed to sit up again to-day and if condition permits, will read them.
It is probable that Ruth and Marian, the youngest of the Gaylor children, will be allowed to see their father. Luke E.
Wright, former secretary of war, called at the hospital yesterday. He chatted with Mrs. Gaylor and saw the mayor briefly. Thomas Gaylor, the mayor's brother, who came immediately after the shooting, has gone back to his home

Dr. Arlitt, in attendance on Mayor Gaylor, denied to-day the rumors of the past few days, that the mayor was in Roosevelt to-day are convinced that the York state campaign and that he is thankful to be able to escape the responsibility for the conduct of the campaign, as he is said to feel that the Republicans are riding to almost certain defeat.

It is said that he also feels that the election of Democrats throughout the state strengthens his position as then he will be able to say "I told you so."

WILL SLASH
MAJORITYBy One-Half, Say Democratic Speakers

IN THEIR OPENING RALLY

Democrats of Vermont Fired Their First Gun in Vermont State Campaign at St. Albans Last Evening.

St. Albans, Aug. 19.—Although not expecting victory, the Democratic candidates for the several state offices in the coming state election headed by Charles D. Watson, the nominee for governor, predicted freely at an opening rally in the campaign held here last night, that the usual Republican majority of 20,000 votes would be cut at least in half. Mr. Watson, Rev. J. B. Reardon of Springfield, the party candidate for lieutenant-governor, and Patrick Mel-don of Rutland, who is opposing Congressman D. J. Foster in the first Vermont district, were the principal speakers.

Mr. Watson delivered a scathing arraignment of the methods used by the Republican party during the canvass preceding the convention at Montpelier and deplored the use of money in securing the nomination for any office. He stated that he had not used a penny in his canvass, for the nomination, and asked the Republicans to give one instance where large sums of money had not been used in elections in this state in the past.

The speaker said that the Republican platform was composed of planks stolen one by one from the Democrats and that now the two platforms do not differ in any great extent. Mr. Watson quoted the Republican press of Vermont, "Send me, gods, a whole hog barbed." Democratic ticket are capable and respectable. He stated that the purification of the primaries would be one of the principal issues of the campaign and condemned the new tariff law. He also stated that the people, not the corporate interests, bear the brunt of taxation.

RICH PROFIT IN MOUNTAIN LAND.

Adirondack Holdings, Sold to State, Netted 100 Per Cent. in Five Years.

Albany, Aug. 19.—Before the commission investigating the purchase of Adirondack lands by the forest, fish and game commission yesterday, George N.
Ostrander, who has been selling land to the state since 1907, was the principal witness.

Ostrander testified that in 1909 William F. Durant made him a proposition that he aid in raising $400,000 through the sale of Durant's Adirondack holdings.
Ostrander undertook the deal and raised the money. The lands sold at that time included Sagamore lodge, which went to Alfred Vanderbilt, and Arbutus camp, which was purchased by Archer M. Han-dington, while the "tag-ends" went to a group of men, including George F.
Underwood, George R. Finch, former Congressman L. W. Emerson, Patrick Moynihan, J. T. Finch, Edward F. Murray, the witness, and others, who were the organizers of the Bagquette Falls Land company. Emerson is the present president of the company.

This company bought 21,000 acres of land in 1901 for $84,014, gave the Union Bag and Paper company a timber cutting reservation for $20,250, and sold the land in 1906 to the state for $182,- 364. The forest purchasing board at that time consisted of Commissioner Whipple, John T. Wallenmeier, then state treasurer.

Mr. Ostrander declared that neither he nor the company had paid money to any state official to influence action in the purchase of land.

Mr. Ostrander also testified that dividends had been paid by the Bagquette Falls Land company to the amount of $217,600 from Sept. 6, 1904, to January, 1909, on a capitalization of $200,000.

out of 523 for Joseph Auld, his only opjority given him as evidence that the Republican party in this city stood united and that it would be victorious at the polls. He promised, if elected, to give his very best service to the people, even if that service should call for sacrifice. The duty of a representative, said Mr. Peck, is to serve his con-

HASKINS OPPOSED PLAN

For $1 a Day Pension for All Old Soldiers.

Wilmington, Aug. 19.—Yesterday of the old home week celebration was given over to the old soldiers, and not since the Civil war has as large a number of men in blue been gathered in the streets.

The program opened with a concert by the Sherburne Falls military band and a parade was made through the principal streets with Col. J. H. Goulding marshal. The first business of the annual re-union of the Windham county Veterans' association, was the election of officers as follows: E. W. Hutchins of Bellows Falls, president; Dr. M. L.
Bruce of Battleboro, vice president; C. M. Russell of Wilmington, secretary-treasurer.

Col. Kittredge Haskins of Battleboro made a strong speech against the proposed law of $1 a day pension for all old soldiers and said that he took the same stand as he does his former colleague in Congress, Congressman Cyrus A. Sulloway, chairman of the committee on invalid pensions. Col. Haskins said that the Grand Army of the country was opposed to this law pension and told his audience that while such a law might be a benefit to some of the younger men in the ranks of the veterans, it would prove a hardship on the old veterans who are receiving more than $30 a month.

Col. Alfred Bugbee of New York spoke on general matters of interest to the veterans, and Benjamin Cudwick of Windsor, Mass., sang some popular songs and was greeted with much enthusiasm. Capt. Haskins of North Adams paid a tribute to President Lincoln and editor F. E. Howe of Bennington paid a flattering tribute to the people of Wilmington.

He said that the president of doing things was established when the town was chartered in 1721. He paid the town the compliment of saying it was the most progressive in Vermont.
Austin H. Watson of New York, gave an address and Secretary Russell of the association read a letter from President Taft's secretary expressing a wish to visit Vermont and his ancestral home in Windham county and also expressing regret that he was unable to be present yesterday.

At the adjournment of the meeting, which was held in Memorial hall, it was voted to hold the next annual re-union wherever the executive committee may decide. A vote of thanks was given Lawson post, G. A. R., and to the people of Wilmington for their hospitality.

LABOR CELEBRATION

WILL BE BIG EVENT

Barre Central Labor Union Is Arranging An Attractive Program—Various Committees Have Been Named.

A special meeting of the general committee of the central labor union was held last night, when definite arrangements were made for the observance of Labor day, which falls on September fifth this year. From the plans formulated it is evident that this year's celebration will lose nothing by comparison with the observance of the day in former years.

Following is a list of the athletic events which will make up a part of the day's program: Broad jump, high jump, boy's race, girls' race, hop-skip-and-jump, 100 yards dash, half-mile run.
In each event, money awards for first, second and third places will be made.
A feature of the day will be races between local horses. A purse of $50 has been offered to the winners of this attraction. The horse must be owned by a union man in order to be eligible for the race. It is expected that a quoining match will be in progress throughout the day.

Of baseball there will be plenty, as a purse of $50 has been offered as an inducement to teams within the state, and as teams have already made known their desire to compete for the purse, there will be no difficulty in securing good teams. One of the games will be played in the forenoon, and the other in the afternoon.

A fitting climax to the day of recreation will be the banquet served in the evening in Woodman's hall. The speaker of the evening will be James Duncan of Quincy, Mass., first vice president of the American Federation of Labor, and secretary and treasurer of the Granite Citizens' International association. (Chairmen of the banquet will also be called upon in the after-dinner exercises. Tickets for the banquet are to be sold through the different members of the union. In the evening there will also be held a dance in Howard hall, when Riley's orchestra will furnish music.

Following are the committees appointed to further plan the affairs: Resolv-ment, Ed. Chesser, E. N. Prescott, H.
D. Houghton; sport, D. J. Sullivan, Wesley Hoffman, George Quinn, John Mc-Auley of Granville; transportation and grounds, John Bjorn, George Miller, A. B. Coffin, George A. Stuart; press and printing, Alexander Ironside, James Mutch, S. B. Dady, music committee, S. N. Parker. The entertainment committee will consist of members of each one of the locals affiliated with the central labor union. The services of W. H. Snow of the City hotel have already been secured to cater for the banquet. It is expected that arrangements can be made whereby special trains will be run from Granville in the morning and returning in the evening.

Another meeting of the union will be held shortly to make final arrangements, and to act on the reports of the committees.

began to file into the park about 1 o'clock, many coming from outside towns. The races were not started until 2:15, the first being the 2:35 class,
